SOCIAL EVENTS – NEWS

“REMEMBER WHEN QUIZ”

Many thanks to Alan Behenna for all the work he put in to make the event a fun night. He was very capably assisted by Aloma. There were many laughs – especially at our table when we got the answers wrong. The food was excellent.

NOTICE RE FOOD SAFETY

A question has been submitted to the Residents' Committee – “ Why can't we bring salads and sweets to meals at the village?” - The following is a quote from the Residents' Committee Minutes – 19th August, 2025

- The suggestion of Salads and Sweets being brought to meals at the village. This was discussed with the Residents' Committee and it was agreed that due to Australian Food and Safety regulations it was unable to be considered.
- Share a Plate can continue but care must be taken to follow the Australian Food and Safety Regulations.
- Tea Towels not to be left on the oven door anymore. To be removed after being used.

Getting older may slow me down, but it will never stop me

How do you get away with things when you're old?
Call it a senior moment.
